

DA COSTA DIES AT ST. VINCENT'S

Famous Episcopalian Clergyman Who Turned to Catholic Faith Passes Away After Long Illness in Hospital.

PASTOR OF ST. JOHN'S
HERE FOR 38 YEARS.

Converted to Catholicity Five Years Ago and Ordained to Priesthood in November Last—An Eloquent Speaker.

The Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. Da Costa, the Episcopal clergyman who became a convert to the Roman Catholic Church, died today in St. Vincent's Hospital, where his life had been slowly ebbing away for six months. He was seventy-six years old.

Before entering the Roman Catholic Church Dr. Da Costa was pastor of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church for thirty-eight years, and during his pastorate he took a leading place in the religious world of this city.

His conversion to the Catholic faith created a great stir in the church at the time and caused a bitterness of feeling to grow up between him and Bishop Potter. When the Bishop took the part of Dr. Briggs in the controversy Dr. Da Costa turned his back upon the protest.

It was a short time after this controversy that he resigned from the Episcopal Church and entered the Roman Catholic fold. While seriously ill in Rome a year ago he was ordained a priest, and on Nov. 29 last was ordained a priest.

Dr. Da Costa was one of the most brilliant pulpits of his time, and his sermons attracted wide attention. It was reported at one time that Dr. Da Costa contemplated divorcing his wife, the mother of his two grown children, in order to accept the orders of a Roman priest, but this was not true. Mrs. Da Costa died in 1906, and then her husband did apply for admission to the priesthood. He studied at Dunwoody and went to Rome in May, 1907. Dr. Da Costa was the author of more than thirty religious and historical works, and a novel, "The Rector of Rockburg," which he published under the nom de plume of William H. H. He was born at Charlestown, Mass., in 1834, graduated from Boston University and obtained abroad. He served through the Civil War as chaplain of the Fifth and Eighteenth Massachusetts Infantry Regiments, where he gained the name of "The Fighting Sky Pilot."

Since 1893 Dr. Da Costa devoted much of his time to missionary work and was one of the promoters of the Catholic Converts' League. Having migrated from the States that attacked him in Rome, he returned last spring to America, arriving here on May 15. He had no relatives, and because of his feeble condition decided to make his home in St. Vincent's Hospital. He has lived in the hospital since, going out but little.

He gradually wasted away, and five days ago was attacked with pneumonia. He sank gradually and died at 10 o'clock this morning while in a gentle sleep. His only living relative is a niece who lives in Massachusetts.

DEAD SCIENTIST IDENTIFIED.

Herman E. Coffe Expired on Street in White Plains.

The body of the man who dropped dead on the street in White Plains last night from apoplexy was identified this morning as that of Herman E. Coffe, of No. 247 Seventh avenue, New York City. The body will be shipped to New York this afternoon.

The man had come here to attend a meeting of the Christian Scientists last night.

FREDERICK RAUGHT DIES SUDDENLY

Aged Printer Expires After Taking Some Drinks in a Saloon and the Coroner is Making an Investigation.

Frederick Raught, an old-time printer, dropped dead to-day in the five-cent whiskey saloon of R. Kommler, No. 158 Park Row. Circumstances surrounding the death make an autopsy necessary. Raught was seventy-six years old. He lived at No. 422 Pearl street. Early today he entered Kommler's place and, after taking some drinks, sat down in the rear, where a score of chairs are provided for the patrons.

Clapping his hands to his heart, the aged printer staggered to his feet and then dropped to the floor. An ambulance was called from the Hudson Street Hospital, but Raught was dead when it arrived.

Coroner Jackson will have an autopsy performed to determine the cause of death. Raught was known among printers from New York to San Francisco.

WIFE MESMERIZED AND STOLEN, HE SAYS

Meshow Wants a Warrant for the ex-Convict Who Carried Her Away, but Magistrate Cornell Calls for Proofs.

"I want a warrant," exclaimed Stephen Meshow, of No. 181 Greenwich street, to Magistrate Cornell in the Centre Street Police Court to-day. "I want a man arrested for stealing my wife."

"Would you call it grand or petty larceny?" Magistrate Cornell asked.

"Grand larceny, and a second offense; he's an ex-convict."

"Either had taste on your wife's part to run away with an ex-convict," remarked the Magistrate.

"Well, it wasn't her fault," replied Meshow, "he mesmerized her and then carried her away."

Meshow promised to produce proof that his wife had been stolen and Magistrate Cornell told him when he brought it he would grant a warrant.

Misses' smartest and handsomest '17.50 suits of the season, $10.

TRUE, $10 for a perfectly stunning 17.50 suit is a sensational bargain, but that's just what we intend it should be and we'd be very much disappointed if it were not, because we've been months preparing for this sale—creating the models—choosing the fabrics and laying out the specifications. It's easy enough to make a $10 suit for $10, but when you set out to duplicate a suit which you'd ordinarily consider exceptional good value at 17.50 for $10 that's a different story—come and see how splendidly we have realized our ambition—the most wonderful suit bargain New York has ever known at $10.

$10 for misses' 17.50 suits. Now don't lose sight of the fact that we know what we are talking about when we say 17.50 suits for $10—we've a reputation at stake and we would not hazard it one iota by making a statement we could not more than live up to. Misses' suits made of cheviot in blue, brown and black—also novelty cloth, mannish mixtures, semi-fitting box coat, collarless, lined with stitched panne velvet, side plaited skirt. If we could show you these suits just as they are right in your own home, while you are reading this announcement, you'd say without hesitation that we had not done this suit bargain justice—for misses 14 to 16 years.

21.75 for velvet junior suits—Be-witchingly smart—stylish suits which you will find upon investigation you cannot duplicate elsewhere for less than 31.75—jaunty box coat effect, flat broad velvet collar, finished with silk braid, knit skirt—14 to 16 years at 21.75.

23.75 for misses' blouse suits, made of broadcloth, cheviot, zibeline and novelty mixtures—collarless or notch collar—plaited skirts—sleeves 14 and 16 years.

19.75 for misses' suits of chevots and fancy mixtures—Trim semi-fitting coat with vest of broadcloth, plaited skirt—sleeves 14 and 16 years.

22.75 for misses' broadtail 1/2 length coats—new model, in white, brown, blue, green and black—fancy trimmed collar and cuffs.

14.75 for misses' 1/2 length regulation coats of winter weight cheviot, lined with flannel, body and sleeves lined with satin—bishop sleeves with emblem—blue and brown—sleeves 14 and 16.

Why Tell You a Thing You Can See for Yourself?

A man writes us to say that our "MERIT" shoes are better than their advertising. Good! That's the way it should be.

His point, however, is critical, not complimentary. He says "Your shoes look as well as they wear—why don't you talk more about their looks?"

Reminds us of the applicant who sent us his photograph and never mentioned his qualifications. You can see for yourself what "MERIT" shoes look like.

But you wouldn't know that no shoe at any price will outwear them, unless we told you. We do tell you that—and we guarantee it.

If not near a "MERIT" store send for our new catalog. Mail Order Dept. 109 Summer St., Boston, Mass.
